

Entertainment Design Masterclass: Gnomon School of Visual Effects

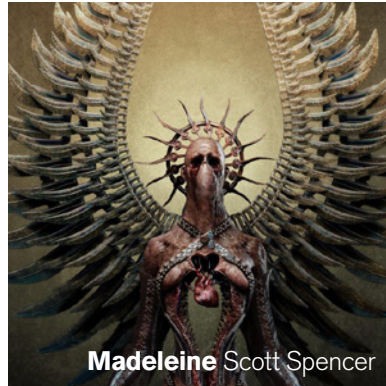

Aaron Limonick

Neville Page

Neil Huxley

Madeleine Scott Spencer

Alex Alvarez

Illustrators, VFX & concept designers have the chance to experience this rare opportunity to meet LA based creative leaders from the entertainment industry and learn from their experience. This masterclass brings to you the strategic thinking, practices, processes and work flows of some of the entertainment industry's most highly regarded designers.

These designers have contributed to Academy Award winning film titles and Triple A games, including Tomb Raider, Assassins Creed, The Last of Us, The Hobbit, Lord of the Rings, Avatar, Prometheus and Star Trek amongst many others.

Participants will have the chance to hone their skills, meet facilitators and further their own potential. Lunch and networking drinks provided.
